TIME + TIDE LUWI

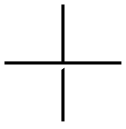

HIGHLIGHTS

- + Walking safari heaven
- + Authentic and secluded camp
- + Wildlife hide overlooking a lively lagoon

Situated deep in the park on the ephemeral Luwi River, Time + Tide Luwi is wonderfully remote, with no other camps for miles around. Tranquillity envelops this camp, creating a haven that allows you to reconnect with nature in a meaningful way. Nestled in a grove of ancient mahogany trees, the tents are designed to fully immerse guests into the bush experience. From the comfort of your open air lounge, watch the diverse wildlife wandering by on the grassy floodplains. Listen to the hippos bellowing in the nearby lagoon and breathe in the heady aroma of African jasmine drifting past on a cool breeze. Sit back and let the peace of this place wash over you.

As the peak dry season, October and November are a great time to see predator action as animals concentrate around dwindling water sources.

Wild dog sightings pick up in late October and November, even passing right by camp.

GREAT ALL SEASON

- + South Luangwa is famous for large elephant herds
- + The Luwi region is a haven for walking safaris
- + Wildlife photography - still a wild land devoid of crowds that makes for great photographic opportunities

September to November is best for seeing the iconic carmine bee-eaters.

The start of the walking safari season, which runs from May to November.

As the dry season approaches, large herds of elephants begin to drop by camp more often, drawn to drink at the nearby lagoon.

ACTIVITIES

Home to the original walking safari, Time + Tide South Luangwa is the perfect destination for adventurous and active travellers. With our award winning guiding team, you can explore as you please, discovering the diverse tapestry of habitats of the South Luangwa.

The Time + Tide Luwi surroundings are famous for lions and wild dogs. The thrill of tracking them on a walking safari is an experience not to be missed. Combine walks with game drives and ventures upriver to find elusive roan antelope, eland and hartebeest.

Next to camp, a permanent oxbow lagoon attracts wildlife from far and wide, especially during the dry winter months. A wildlife hide overlooks the resident hippos and offers superb sightings of the lagoon's many visitors.

WINE + DINE

Amid the wild bush setting, our award winning culinary team creates an extraordinary dining experience that blends expert culinary skills, impeccable service and artful plating. Our dishes draw from the rich cultural and natural heritage of Zambia by featuring our vibrant flavours, produce and traditions. By bringing together the best of Zambia with inspiration from around the world, we create a dining experience that appeals to our international clientele, while retaining its wonderful Zambian authenticity.
